

IN THE BEGINNING

[Instrumental Intro]

[Verse 1 – Before the Days]

Before the days were counted,
Earth's cornerstone was laid.
The morning stars sang together;
Sons of God shouted praise.
Then darkness veiled the waters;
God's Spirit moved in might.
The Father gave command;
The Word brought forth the light.

[Chorus]

In the beginning, in the beginning,
God called the world to life.
In the beginning, in the beginning,
The Word turned dark to light.
Six days of wonder—one day blessed;
Six days He labored—one day of rest.
Remember the Sabbath, remember and rest;
The seventh is holy, the seventh is blessed!

[Verse 2 – Days One and Two]

Day one, God called for light;
The darkness fled from sight.
He named the brightness Day;
The darkness He called Night.
Day two, He formed the heavens
And stretched the mighty sky.
He parted all the waters—
Below them and on high.

[Hook]

In the beginning, in the beginning,
God called the world to life.
In the beginning, in the beginning,
The Word turned dark to light.

[Verse 3 – Days Three and Four]

Day three, He gathered seas;
Dry land rose at His call.
Then seed and grass and trees
Sprang green and covered all.
Day four, the sun by day,
The moon and stars by night;

IN THE BEGINNING

To mark the years and seasons,
He set them there for light.

[Chorus]

In the beginning, in the beginning,
God called the world to life.
In the beginning, in the beginning,
The Word turned dark to light.
Six days of wonder—one day blessed;
Six days He labored—one day of rest.
Remember the Sabbath, remember and rest;
The seventh is holy, the seventh is blessed!

[Verse 4 – Days Five and Six]

Day five, the waters swarmed;
Birds soared across the blue.
“Be fruitful, multiply”—
And every creature grew.
Day six brought beasts of Earth,
Both creatures great and small.
Then mankind, in God’s image,
Was given rule of all.
From Adam, God made woman,
A helper at his side.
God blessed them there together:
“Be fruitful, multiply.”

[Hook]

In the beginning, in the beginning,
God called the world to life.
In the beginning, in the beginning,
The Word turned dark to light.

[Verse 5 – The Garden]

A river ran through Eden;
The tree of life stood fair.
God placed them in His garden
To tend and keep it there.
No shame stood in between them;
No sin had scarred their life.
Adam rejoiced in woman—
God joined them man and wife.

[Bridge – The Father and the Word]

From God the Father, all things;
Through Christ His work was done.

IN THE BEGINNING

The Word was God and with God;
Their purpose beat as one.
Though equal in God's nature,
He honored His Father's throne.
He carried out His Father's will
And nothing on His own.

[Verse 6 – The Seventh Day]
Then dawned the seventh day;
Creation stood complete.
God rested from His labor
And made the day for peace.
He blessed and made it holy,
A sign for all His own:
The God who sanctifies us
Has marked this day alone.

[Sabbath Refrain]
Remember the Sabbath,
Remember and rest.
Six days for our labor;
The seventh is blessed.
The Sabbath was made for man,
A gift from God above.
The Lord of the Sabbath
Still calls His own in love.

[New Earth Tag]
From Eden to the New Earth,
His Sabbath still remains.
From Sabbath unto Sabbath,
All flesh shall praise His name!

[Final Chorus]
In the beginning, in the beginning,
God called the world to life.
In the beginning, in the beginning,
The Word turned dark to light.
Six days of wonder—one day blessed;
Six days He labored—one day of rest.
Remember the Sabbath, remember and rest;
The seventh is holy, the seventh is blessed!

[Outro]
In the beginning!
In the beginning!

IN THE BEGINNING

Six days of wonder—
One day of rest!
Remember the Sabbath!
Remember and rest!
The seventh is holy!
The seventh is blessed!
