

HAVE A HAPPY FEAST

[Instrumental Intro]

[Group Intro]

Welcome to the Feast,
The Feast of the Lord God Almighty!
Welcome to the Feast,
The Feast of the Lamb!
Everybody sing—

[Hook]

Have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast!
Come rejoice before the Lord—
Have a happy Feast!

[Verse 1]

Long ago, God set apart
This season for a joyful heart.
Seven days to meet and eat,
To worship, learn, and share the Feast.
New places and new faces,
Old friends in warm embraces;
The Father blesses one and all
Who come rejoicing at His call.

[Chorus]

Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
Sing a little louder; get up on your feet!
Share the love and laughter with everyone you meet—
Welcome, one and all—have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
God has brought His family here in unity.
Give Him thanks and praise for every joy we meet—
Welcome to the Feast—have a happy Feast!

HAVE A HAPPY FEAST

[Verse 2]

God the Father calls us here;
Jesus Christ is ever near.
The Holy Spirit dwells within,
Drawing us still close to Him.
There's so much good for us to do—
A meal, a song, a friend or two.
Sing and dance in fellowship;
Every day is such a gift.

[Hook]

Have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast!
Come rejoice before the Lord—
Have a happy Feast!

[Verse 3]

We gather daily at the Feast;
God's ministers are there to teach
About Moses, Aaron, and the call,
And how God gave His righteous law.
His Holy Days reveal His plan,
His hope and purpose for all man.
There is a place for me and you,
Because we know His Word is true.

[Pre-Chorus]

They point us to the world to come,
When Christ will reign and peace has won.
No fear or sorrow, pain or tears—
That bright new world is drawing near!

HAVE A HAPPY FEAST

[Chorus]

Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
Sing a little louder; get up on your feet!
Share the love and laughter with everyone you meet—
Welcome, one and all—have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
God has brought His family here in unity.
Give Him thanks and praise for every joy we meet—
Welcome to the Feast—have a happy Feast!

[Verse 4]

Seven joyful days have passed,
But this celebration still will last.
The Eighth Day brings more truth our way—
We call it the Last Great Day.
It pictures all God has in store,
A hope that reaches every shore:
New heavens and a new earth then,
The Father dwelling here with men.

[Bridge]

A thousand years of lasting peace,
Ruled by Jesus, Prince of Peace.
Then Satan will be cast away;
Next comes God's great Judgment Day.
Every tear will disappear;
A brand-new life will then appear.
All old things will pass away—
What a joyful, glorious day!

[Celebration Bridge]

Each time we observe God's Feast,
We show how much we long for peace.
We know Him, love Him, trust Him too;

HAVE A HAPPY FEAST

We praise Him for His Word so true.
Raise a glass for God-given freedom;
Raise a toast to God Most High.
Sing and dance with all His people;
Lift His praises to the sky!

[Final Chorus — Big]

Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
Sing a little louder; get up on your feet!
Share the love and laughter with everyone you meet—
Welcome, one and all—have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast! Have a happy Feast!
New places, smiling faces, joyful company.
Seven days of gladness, then the Eighth Day we keep—
Welcome to the Feast—have a happy Feast!

[Outro / Crowd Hook]

Have a happy Feast!
Have a happy Feast!
God gave us this Feast for joy—
Have a happy Feast!
Welcome to the Feast!
Now have a happy Feast!

[Instrumental Outro]
