

Proclaim the Feasts of the Lord

[Instrumental Intro – bright, celebratory, building with trumpets]

[Spoken Intro]

These are the Feasts of the Lord,
Holy convocations proclaimed in their seasons.
They're not forgotten days from long ago—
They reveal what God wants the world to know!

[Chorus]

Do you know, do you know
What God's Holy Days show?
Come and see what they're all pointing toward!
From the Lamb to the Kingdom restored—
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

[Verse 1 – Passover]

At Passover, the spotless Lamb
Gave up His life in the Father's plan.
Jesus Christ was sacrificed;
His blood has paid redemption's price.
Our sins forgiven, no longer held
Against us now, by the blood He spilled.

[Verse 2 – Unleavened Bread and First fruits]

For seven days we eat that bread,
Remembering the sinless life He led.
We purge out malice, falsehood, sin,
And let the life of Christ live in.
In sincerity and truth we stand,
Walking faithfully, hand in hand.

Then the wave sheaf, lifted high,
Points to Christ, who was raised to life.
He rose triumphant from the grave,
The Firstfruits of those God will save!

Proclaim the Feasts of the Lord

[Chorus]

Do you know, do you know
What God's Holy Days show?
Come and see what they're all pointing toward!
From the Lamb to the Kingdom restored—
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

[Verse 3 – Pentecost]

At Pentecost, with wind and flame,
The power of God from heaven came.
His Spirit poured upon His own;
The firstfruits gathered, seed was sown.
His law now written in each heart,
God's family grew from that small start.

[Verse 4 – Trumpets]

Then Trumpets thunder, loud and long:
“Wake up, O world—the King will come!”
At the last trumpet, the dead will rise,
Changed immortal before our eyes.
Jesus returns to rule this earth;
The Kingdom of God at last restored!

[Chorus]

Do you know, do you know
What God's Holy Days show?
Come and see what they're all pointing toward!
From the Lamb to the Kingdom restored—
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

Proclaim the Feasts of the Lord

[Verse 5 – Atonement]

Then Atonement, solemn and still,
We fast, humble our souls, and seek God's will.
With Satan bound, deceit will cease;
The world can learn the way of peace.
At one with the Father through the Son,
A time of healing has begun.

[Verse 6 – Tabernacles]

For seven days we praise the King
And of His coming Kingdom sing.
Christ and His saints a thousand years
Will rule with truth and conquer fears.
From year to year all nations bring
Their praise to Jesus Christ the King!

[Chorus]

Do you know, do you know
What God's Holy Days show?
Come and see what they're all pointing toward!
From the Lamb to the Kingdom restored—
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

[Verse 7 – The Eighth Day]

Then comes the Eighth Day—the Last Great Day;
The books are opened, truth lights the way.
The rest of the dead, both great and small,
Rise up and stand at the Father's call.
New heaven and earth at last appear;
God dwells with mankind, forever near.

[Bridge]

The spring Feasts show what Christ has done;
The fall Feasts reveal His Kingdom to come.

Proclaim the Feasts of the Lord

One great purpose, one accord—
All proclaimed in the Feasts of the Lord!

[Final Chorus]

Now we know, now we know
What God's Holy Days show!
Now we see what they're all pointing toward!
From the Lamb to the Kingdom restored—
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!

[Chanted Outro]

Passover! Unleavened Bread!
Christ the Firstfruits from the dead!
Pentecost! The Trumpets call!
Atonement! God brings peace to all!
Tabernacles! The Eighth Day!
God will finish all He said!

Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Proclaim, proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
Right now!
Please come my Lord-
Until then I will proclaim
The Feasts of the Lord!
