

YOU'RE MORE THAN A FRIEND TO ME

As your smile warms my soul.
Your love echoes in my heart.
It's tearing me apart,
not to be with you right now.

You captured my imagination,
with your warm embrace.
I'm never out of place
when you're standing close to me.

You're more than a friend to me.
You're the newness that the morning brings.
When I wake up in my empty room, I think of you.

You're more than a friend to me, you're my everything
You're more than a friend to me; your love makes me sing.

You're more than a friend to me.
And anyone could surely see,
there's something very special about you.

You are more than a friend to me, you're my everything
You are more than a friend to me, you're my everything

When troubles get me down,
and I try to understand,
you'll be there to take my hand
and do all that you can.

When things start getting rough,
and no one sticks around,
it never puts you down,

YOU'RE MORE THAN A FRIEND TO ME

because your love's so profound.

You're more than a friend to me.
You're the newness that the morning brings.
When I wake up in my empty room, I think of you.

You're more than a friend to me.
And anyone could surely see:
there's no one out there quite like you.
We have been together thru all times
We face this world together
Even though we are both different
From different worlds we always make it work

You're more than a friend to me, you're my everything
You're more than a friend to me, You're everything to me

As my heart is longing for you.
My arms are empty without you.
it's a matter of my heart,
it's lonely when your gone.

You're more than a friend to me,
You're more than a friend to me,
You're more than a friend to me, my love.

My heart is a vessel that is empty
Without your love to fill it

I feel safe when I'm with you
My eyes love to see you
My ears love to hear you

YOU'RE MORE THAN A FRIEND TO ME

My arms wanna hold you
My lips wanna kiss you
I can't help but miss you
My heart just wants to be close to you.

You're more than a friend to me.
You're the newness that the morning brings.
When I wake up in my empty room, I think of you.

You're more than a friend to me.
And anyone could surely see,
there's something very special about you.

You're more than a friend to me, you're my everything
You're more than a friend to me, that's why you wear my wedding ring.

You're more than a friend to me,
You're more than a friend to me,
You're more than a friend to me,
my everlasting love.

You're more than a friend to me
