

I LOOK UP TO YOU

Oh, I know all the things
I put you through
All the days of my life.
You never turned away,
No matter what I did.
The way you stood by me,
Oh Dad, you were the one
I always looked up to.

I look up to you.
I look up to you.
Oh Dad, I can't tell you
Oh, how much I miss you.

No matter what I did,
No matter how bad I was,
You always took me in,
Always believed in me,
Because I was your only son.

I look up to you,
My Father.
I look up to you,
My Lord.

When my dad passed away,
You stepped in.
You helped me through my broken heart
Because I lost my best friend.

Life is oh so short.
We're here today
And gone tomorrow.
Throughout the years, some of
The ones we love are lost,
But they will come back
In a world tomorrow.
Then God the Father will take
Away all my sorrow,
Because I will be with my best
Friend, my dad, again.

I LOOK UP TO YOU

I look up to you,
My Father.
I look up to you,
My Lord.
Great glorious God forevermore,
I look up to you.

I look up to you,
Oh God, my Father.
I look up to you,
My best friend.
You did step in.

You told me it would
Be okay, and I
Should look to that
Better day,
When they all will come back
On that judgment day,
Where they will look up to
You, and they will
Learn to live the right way.

The last days with him
Were oh so sad.
We all stood around to watch
Our dad,
Who was to all of us
The only dad we loved,
Clinging on to life until
He had enough.
On that day we lost our dad.

But Dad, I still look up to you,
And ask God my Father
To take care of you
Until that day I'll get
To be with you and all
Of our family too.

I look up to you. I look up to you. I look up to you.
You are my Father now.

I LOOK UP TO YOU

I look up to you.

My father here on earth was my dad.
My Father up in Heaven is my God.

Because of Adam,
We all shall die.
But because of Jesus,
We all can have eternal life.

Salvation comes through
The death of Christ.
Forgiveness comes to us
Because He came back alive.

I look up to You,
My Lord Jesus Christ,
Because You showed us the
Father, and through His grace
He gives us eternal life.

I'll look up to You forever,
My Dad.
I'll look up to You forever,
My Father God.
I look up to You.
