

Trixie Owns the Yard

[Verse 1]

Trixie got a patchy coat
White and brown like sugar toast
Little Rat Terrier, sharp as a pin
She walk's that yard like she runs it in

She squares her shoulders, sniffs the air
Like every blade of grass belongs to her
Tiny queen with a warrior face
Patrolin' that whole back place

[Pre-Chorus]

Then she spots a tail
Beneath the fence
Eyes get wide
And the barking starts again

[Chorus]

Trixie owns the yard
Trixie owns the yard
Lizards better hide
When Trixie starts the charge

Trixie Owns the Yard

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

She barks all day

Then she guards her yard

[Verse 2]

One gray lizard on the wall

Way too high, still she wants it all

She jumps and snaps at the empty air

Then stands there mad like it's unfair

They pop out just to make her chase

Then zip back in with a smug little face

And Trixie loses her mind

Every single lizard time

[Pre-Chorus]

Tail gone fast

Up the brick

She does a spin

And gets real fix

Trixie Owns the Yard

[Chorus]

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

Lizards better hide

When Trixie starts the charge

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

She barks all day

Then she guards her yard

[Bridge]

Little spotted bulldozer

Full of bite and pride

I swear she thinks the whole world

Was built for her to drive

If a critter slips through

She is on that trail

Most days she just keeps barking

At a tail behind a wall

Trixie Owns the Yard

[Final Chorus]

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

Lizards better hide

When Trixie starts the charge

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

White and brown and small

Still, she owns it all

Trixie owns the yard

Trixie owns the yard

Bark, bark, bark, bark

Queen of the backyard
